The French National Equestrian Grouping informs us that since 2002 the helmet use of protection in the European standard (NF IN 1384) is compulsory: for the minors, for the school riding, in leisure centers and for the employees of an equestrian establishment during their work, it is particularly recommended to all the beginners. For all other cases, the riders act freely in good conscience. Thank you for completing and signing the text below.

I undersigned Mr, Mrs, Miss, (Name and first name) _____ duly certify to have been informed by Cheval Voyages of the interest of the helmet use (NF standard EN1384) for the practice of the riding.
